Jacobs Financial Services Welcomes Local TV Icon Terri DeBoer as Director of Communication

GRANDVILLE, MICHIGAN — Jacobs Financial, a trusted name in financial services and wealth preservation, is delighted to announce the newest addition to its team, Terri DeBoer, a beloved television personality in West Michigan who has also written a bestselling book about life as an empty nester. DeBoer, who has earned unparalleled trust and admiration throughout her tenure as a WOOD TV8 meteorologist, is continuing her work helping people experiencing life transitions—becoming empty nesters, moving into retirement—as Jacobs Financial Service's Director of Communication.

DeBoer's appointment to this key role has generated immense excitement within the Jacobs Financial family and the West Michigan community as a whole. With her extensive experience and impeccable reputation as a guidepost for those in a transitional phase, she is poised to make a significant impact in her new capacity.

"We are so excited to have Terri join our team," said Tom Jacobs, owner of Jacobs Financial. "She is one in a million and has worked hard to gain the trust of West Michigan. We can't wait to see the difference she will continue to make in the community with Jacobs Financial."

In her new role, DeBoer will leverage her exceptional communication skills and local influence to help individuals "DOMINATE retirement," as she passionately puts it. She brings a fresh perspective and boundless energy to the team, stating, "I feel like I am in my prime, and I cannot wait to see what this next chapter has in store for me. I am ready to help people DOMINATE retirement!"
